Surgate Labs Success Story

“We have got control over our messaging traffic with Surgate high spam detection success.”

Surgate impressively had shown high success during its demo process.

Its ability to specify applications regarding the user, easy-used interface and mail archiving property were effective for us to choose Surgate.

Updating spam algorithms continuously and offering white list property by all modules have shown that the product exactly what we were looking for.

Ozcan ELMALI
IT Manager, Ted Istanbul College

We have carried out a project planned for both sides. Our customer’s mail security and productivity has been increased by Surgate. Ted Istanbul College is able to control its mail traffic from now on.
